

THE BATTLE OF PLATTSBURGH

2018 LIVE MUSIC SCHEDULE

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 6TH AT THE STRAND CENTER FOR THE ARTS*

7:30 pm BEARTRACKS: Beartracks began as a trio in 2004. Legendary Dobro player Junior Barber convinced his cousins, Tom and Julie, to make the switch from playing traditional country music in clubs to playing bluegrass oriented material at festivals around the northeast. Since then, Beartracks has become a regional favorite performing traditional bluegrass, classic country with a bluegrass twist and originals.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 7TH AT THE ISRAEL GREEN TAVERN AT OLIVE RIDLEY'S*

4:45-5:45 pm STAN RANSOM, THE CONNECTICUT PEDDLER: Stan Ransom is a folk musician who sings, plays the guitar, hammered dulcimer, mandolin and autoharp as well as six and twelve string guitars. Stan sings and plays the American and British songs and tunes of the War of 1812, many of which appear on his CD, "The Battle of Plattsburgh; Music from the War of 1812." Another Tavern favorite returns!

6:00-7:30 pm ROY HURD: A dynamic performer and a world class singer/songwriter, Roy's brand of mountain music has developed a dedicated national and local following. His song, Adirondack Blue, has become a modern day Adirondack anthem, and his recordings are regional bestsellers.

7:45-9:00 pm TIM HERRON: Tim has been a mainstay on the upstate NY music scene for years. He blends folk, jazz, rock and blues into an eclectic mix of American roots music. With two solo albums, Tim tours constantly throughout the region bringing his unique guitar style and songwriting to music festivals, clubs, house concerts and local taverns.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 7TH IN TRINITY PARK

5:45-7:15 pm BELLA'S BARTOK: Northampton, MA-based Bella's Bartok delivers a passionate kaleidoscope of sound. The songs are born of Americana and the folk music of their immigrant parents. They sonically and lyrically deliver a soulful dance-party that leaves their audiences happily breathless.

7:30-9:00 pm THE BLIND OWL BAND: Hailing from Saranac Lake, this four piece band performs Adirondack freight train string music, featuring eclectic sounds and traditional instrumentation. "They knocked the nit and grit right out of their strings," said UpState Live's Tom Miller.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 8TH AT THE ISRAEL GREEN TAVERN AT OLIVE RIDLEY'S***

The Israel Green Tavern

Location: Olive Ridley's, Court Street

4-5pm Too Tall String Band: A Tavern favorite, Too Tall performs traditional English, Scottish and Irish pub tunes and sing-alongs plus a number of traditional Celtic dance tunes.

5:30-6:30pm Josee Allard: Performing with musical partner and percussionist, Erik Van Yserloo, this British Columbia native and singer-songwriter has been hailed as a female Jack Johnson. Josee and Erik play feel good acoustic blues-rock music.

7-8pm Sven Curth: Sven is an accomplished Adirondack blues folk performer. His music is a soulful blend of country, swing, bluegrass, blues, jazz, folk, rock and rockabilly.

8:30-9:45pm Fulton's Folly: Fulton's Folly was formed in June of 2017. The band plays a wide variety of music. Mainly from the 1950's, 60's and 70's and beyond; mostly centered on pop and Rock and roll. Some examples of their music include: Fleetwood Mac, Pure Prairie League, and Jay and the Americans. The band has six members with many years of experience in the local music scene. They are: Rance Bloom, Renee Annacone, Don Vicaro, Erena Fulton, Logan Vondell (not pictured), and Steve Fulton. Each member of the band brings a unique set of skills and talent to every exciting performance.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 8TH AT THE STRAND CENTER FOR THE ARTS***

7:30 pm THE BAND OF HER MAJESTY'S ROYAL MARINES (aka. THE CONCERT BAND OF COBOURG)

The Town of Cobourg has had a long tradition of military bands dating back to the 19th century. The origin of its present band can be traced back to 1842 when the Cobourg Brass Band made its debut. In 1975, the band accepted the invitation to represent the Royal Marines Association of Ontario and donned the distinctive white pith helmets for parades and tattoos. With the approval of the Town of Cobourg and the Royal Marines School of Music in the U.K., the band was honoured to add the distinction of The Band of Her Majesty's Royal Marines Association – Ontario to its name.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 8TH IN TRINITY PARK

4:00-5:15 pm RICK DAVIES LATIN JAZZ THUGTET: The Thugtet was formerly led and dedicated to the internationally famed and beloved late Rick Davies. The group consists of veteran players and young lions from the North Country. They're a high-energy band specializing in Latin and Funk Music.

6:00-7:30 pm THE BLIND SPOTS: This all original, five-piece moxy rock band steered by magnetic songstress Maddy Walsh has been actively touring the country out of their hometown of Ithaca, NY. The Blind Spots have shared festival bills with Lake Street Dive, Amy Helm, Sharon Jones, Brett Dennen and many more.

8:00-9:30 pm THE GLENGARRY BHOYS: Described as bold, unorthodox, vibrant, and evocative, the Glengarry Bhoys' hybrid of Canadian Highland Scots and French Canadian musical idioms routinely packs local and national venues. From a small Scots-French-Canadian enclave in Eastern Ontario, these Celtic-Stompers are a favorite here in Plattsburgh and beyond.
